ACOUSTIC
ROCK, POP,
SOUL & COUNTRY
FROM ST. LOUIS

The Silvertones are a St. Louis acoustic duo featuring Sam Adkins and Kevin Korinek. Built around guitars, vocal harmonies and a flexible mix of bass, harmonica, slide guitar and percussion, they put an acoustic spin on familiar songs spanning six decades of rock, pop, soul and country.

From The Beatles and Stevie Wonder to Fleetwood Mac, Tears for Fears, Dwight Yoakam and Radiohead, The Silvertones build sets around songs people know while avoiding the standard acoustic-cover-band playlist. Their compact, self-contained setup works equally well in cocktail bars, breweries, wineries, patios and private events.
